Plymouth: Magnet for Tourists

On our cover is the centerpiece of the lively, teeming town of Plymouth.

PILGRIM MONUMENT

Tourists from all over the country converge on the spot to see the stuff of which legends are made. The ROCK which has made the rounds of the town was finally enshrined in its present location under the granite canopy in 1920 and everyone who visits Plymouth is drawn to this very spot to witness its resting place in the sands of the beach where we are told the Pilgrims stepped ashore, above right. The Pilgrim Monument, above right, is high above on the loftiest point of the hill overlooking the harbor and is a good vantage point from which to get the breeze. DCJ photos.

Mattapoisett Selectmen's Meeting

JUNE 16, 1987-by VIRGINIA ARRAL

RECREATION DIRECTOR EXPLAINS BEACH HIRINGS

In response to a previous meeting at which Selectmen heard the complaints of Ann Marie Stepanaitis, last year's beach director who was not rehired for this summer, the Board asked Recreation Director Barry Haskell to send the Board a letter citing his explanation of the circumstances under which Ms. Stepanaitis claimed she had not been notified she would not be rehired.

Mr. Haskell met with Selectmen last Tuesday to present the letter. He made no other comment other than to say the letter cites issues and dates for the Board to review.

The letter reads, in part, "Ms. Stepanaitis has made many allegations about her failure to be recommended for reappointment as beach director. I did call Ms. Stepanaitis on April 12 to inform her that she would not be recommended for reappointment. I did so as a courtesy so that she could seek other employment for the summer. I generally do this with applicants. I told her that I recommended a person who would better meet the needs of Mattapoisett. She stated that she was unhappy with the decision. I told her that I was not going to discuss this over the telephone and she could either meet with me or the Recreation Committee. This was followed by a letter she said did not exist. (A copy was given to the Selectmen.)

"Ms. Stepanaitis is looking for reasons for our selecting another candidate. She need only to look at her evaluation. She was evaluated using a Clinical Supervision Model. There are several deficient areas especially in the administrative and supervision areas, the primary responsibility area of a beach director. First, she states that she did not know that she would be required to evaluate the staff. I have enclosed two memos, dated June 20, 1986 and August 30, 1986 that list evaluations as a task to be completed by Labor Day. In the minutes of the September 16 meeting of the Recreation Committee, Mr. Jeff Riley directs Ms. Stepanaitis to complete her evaluations so that I could report on them at the October 28 meeting. They were not received until November 14. Ann Marie never reviewed them with the staff. I sent copies to the staff and asked for comments. Enclosed are copies of these minutes and the letter sent to the staff along with responses that illustrate staff dissatisfaction.

"The second item concerns complaints of her performance. At the August 19 meeting of the Recreation Commission, the entire instructional and lifeguard staff and several community members came to the meeting to complain about her tardiness to work, not coming to work on rain days and general incompetence. I met with her the following morning to address these complaints.

"The third item asserts that she often had to leave the beach or more correctly arrive late because she had to obtain supplies. She went to the Red Cross on two occasions and Mattapoisett Pharmacy twice and Allsport Trophy once. All janitorial supplies were ordered and delivered by me. All Red Cross swimming records were done by me. The safety problems were completed by support services. Steve Petty obtained all supplies and provided the labor for repairing the guard towers and building maintenance. Steve Mach purchased all rescue gears for her. I have receipts for all these items and none were signed by Ms. Stepanaitis. Also obtaining supplies is a task listed in the job descriptions of the beach director.

"Supervision, a major area, was seriously lacking. Ms. Stepanaitis had difficulty in giving directions. There are two letters enclosed detailing the difficulties they encountered with the director. Ms. Stepanaitis did not submit her application until January 27, 1987. The deadline for applications was January 16. Applications were reviewed by the Committee on January 20. The minutes of that meeting are enclosed.

"Responsibility was a major area of weakness of Ms. Stepanaitis; last August, as you remember, there was a hurricane warning. Ann Marie did not come to work as it was her day off. Steve Mach and I both tried to call her at home so that she could have her staff secure the beach facility. She could not be reached. I worked with Steve Mach and the staff to haul the raft and secure the bathhouse. When I called Ann Marie she said she did not know that securing the beach was her responsibility. Protecting the community was her responsibility and she placed herself in an indefensible position.

"As part of the Clinical Supervision Model she was recommended with three areas targeted for improvement. This recommendation was done in November without screening other applicants. In January we received applications from two candidates with verifiable experience from this area. In light of the problems Ms. Stepanaitis had during the summer, her inability to complete her evaluations promptly or even to submit her application on

On other matters with Mr. Haskell, Selectmen hired Karen Holden, a teacher in the New Bedford school system, as the arts and crafts instructor. He noted no one from Mattapoisett applied.

Mr. Haskell said the two lifeguard/instructors hired several weeks ago will have to be replaced. Cameron Pease has accepted a job as state legislative aide and Pam Peirce has accepted another position. At the director's recommendation, Karen Gracia of Mattapoisett was hired to fill one slot. The second opening will be re-advertised.

Everything else is in place, Mr. Haskell said, and the beach will open officially on June 29th. He introduced Steve Pettey who will serve as interim recreation director during the summer while Mr. Haskell is on a business assignment in Holland.

In other business, Selectmen:

MET WITH MEMBERS of the Sewer/Water Commission to discuss progress of the Fairhaven sewer plant expansion and other town sewer concerns. "We have a lot of problems in Mattapoisett," said Superintendent William Nicholson, "but no different from other towns."

Nicholson said ground breaking was held June 1 for the Fairhaven plant expansion. The construction project is expected to be completed in 1990 at a cost of over $17 million. When completed the plant will handle five million gallons per day and is supposed to be good for 30 years. "But what with the building going on in Fairhaven, it could be less than 30 years." he said.

Nicholson explained that in the next 30 years if Mattapoisett expands there will be enough capacity for 1250 homes. This would add approximately 180,000 gallons to the present usage of 130,000 gallons per day. Presently there are 335 homes with sewer service and with the recent expansion there will be 370 homes. If funds are available, there are plans to expand in the next 15 years to add 450 homes.

Selectman Frank Suzan asked if the usage peaks at 350,000 gallons. Nicholson said "we have exceeded 250,000". He added that any sewer line expansion will have to go through the state to determine whether our capacity can take the additional homes.

On another matter, Nicholson explained the North Street sewer line should receive top priority; all agreed. He estimated it would cost $250,000 to replace the North Street

RECEIVED A COPY of a notice sent to Robert C. Townsend of Westport, regarding his application to the State Department of Public Works for an outdoor sign on Route 6 and Reservation Road advertising his business, The Homestead, on Reservation Road.

The application was denied by the state citing "the sign would obstruct visibility of the town street sign for Reservation Road". Selectmen had approved the sign one year ago; however, the sign also required state approval as Route 6 is a state road. Mr. Townsend has the right of appeal.

Letters to the Editor

When I turned in my answers to the growth survey questionnaire, I was dealing with a set of pat questions that required pat answers; and I didn't have them. I should like now to add a few comments.

(1) Mattapoisett will continue to grow. The extent, direction and character of the growth will not please everybody; for, as Martin Luther remarked, "It makes a difference whose ox is gored".

(2) If we are trying to change the natural development, we should be careful that we don't throw out the baby with the bath-water.

(3) For years, the Town's best "industry" has been Supper people.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

With graduation so recently behind us, I would like to take this opportunity to extend my personal thanks to the many local organizations that award scholarships to our graduating seniors. On June 6, 1987, approximately forty students were awarded scholarships totaling $40,000. All of these awards will help defray the cost of a college education.

As a member of a local scholarship organization, I know the number of volunteer hours that are required to raise scholarship money. A small number of people have put in a tremendous amount of work to make these awards possible.

Over the years, I have witnessed organizations increase the size of their scholarships and the number awarded. This means more effort and more hours on the part of the volunteers. It also reflects growing concern for our students on the part of these organizations. The cost of a college education has increased at an alarming rate. Fortunately, the community organizations in Mattapoisett, Marion, Rochester and the Greater New Bedford area have tried to keep pace with these increases.

The students who receive local scholarships appreciate all the financial help that is available to them. To the many local organizations who give so much to so many, thank you.

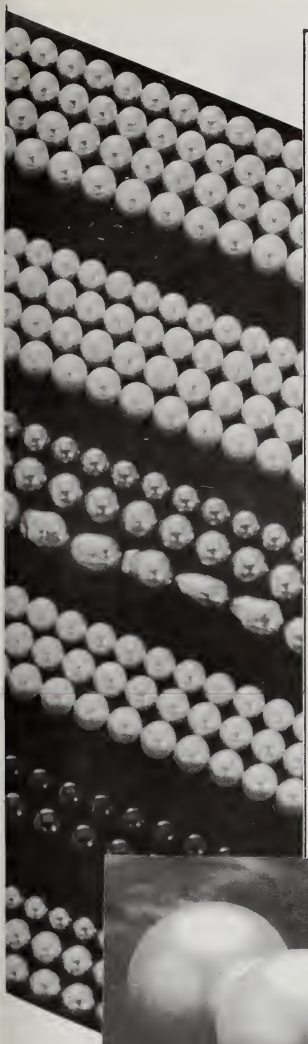
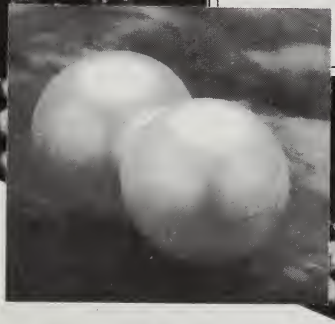
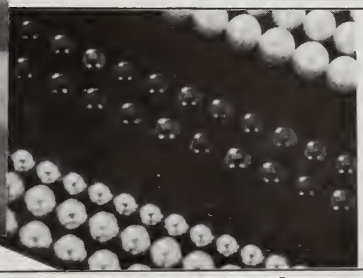
was co-sponsored by Middlebury College, Middlebury Union High School and Otter Valley Union High School in nearby Brandon, VT.

The students, selected by the English departments of their respective high schools to apply to the Conference, were chosen to attend on the merits of a writing sample they submitted. The students participated in workshops and attended readings and lectures given by Middlebury College faculty members, staff from the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference and special guest writers. Students also exchanged ideas in writers' think tanks and presented some of their own work at student reading sessions. Social activities included a dance where students dressed in the garb of a favorite literary character.

Robert Pack, director of the Bread Loaf Writers' Conference and Professor of English at Middlebury, commented "This is an exceptional opportunity for talented young writers from throughout the northeast to meet with other motivated young writers and to receive encouragement from established writers. It is also encouraging to see this kind of cooperation between the high schools and Middlebury College."







Presto Friends:

It has been quite a while since my last letter to you. Since then, however, it has been brought to my attention that pearls are not marketed with proper knowledge today. I thought it wise to let you be aware of a few things.

Pearls, as is true with diamonds, come in many different qualities and thus can range in price greatly for the same size.

What determines this are five (5) factors, color, luster, nacre thickness, finish and shape. Grading can be done most easily on a percentage scale for each of these factors. Let us take color first: the most expensive and wanted would be pink rose 90 to 100% then white rose, white green rose, yellow, green black, black rose. Next, luster which is to determine the amount of reflected light the pearl can return to the eye. Then the thickness of nacre which is very important because this will determine the life of the strand, .5 m/m being heavy to .25 m/m being very thin. Imagine how upset you will be if your strand of pearls wears through in a short time.

Your Jeweler can advise you how thick the nacre is at the time of purchase. Then the finish: 100% grade is perfectly smooth and, depending on the number of imperfections per pearl, dropping in value. Lastly the shape, 100% being perfectly round and going down in value as the shape veers away from round. Of course, how the pearls are matched in size and quality per strand and type of clasp will affect the price.

The purchase of a nice strand of pearls is one that can not be taken lightly: rely only on a Jeweler for your best buy.

QUESTION:

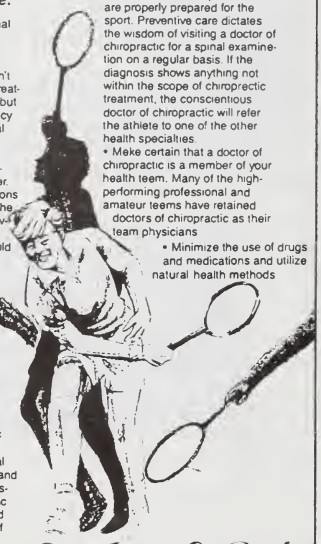
WHY SHOULD ATHLETES HAVE CHIROPRACTIC SPINAL MANIPULATION?

ANSWER: Because it can help their performance.

Many amateur and professional athletes are sidelined with injuries that could be avoided. Others sit it out on the bench because their injury just doesn't seem to respond to ordinery treatment. Still others are playing, but at less than their peak efficiency simply because their structural system is not in balance.

Progressive coaches and trainers are realizing that pain-killing drugs are not the answer. Drugs and medications merely cover up the symptom, deceiving the player into actions which could make the injury more serious.

Probably more than any other health profession, chiropractic's approach to health closely relates to the needs of the sports participant. Most sports involve body contact, leverage, fast starts and stops, and positioning that places an unusual strain on the back and structural system. Doctors of chiropractic consider the human as an integrated being, giving special attention to spinal mechanics and neurological, muscular and vascular relationships. Chiropractic is a natural health care method that stresses the importance of keeping all the systems of the body functioning efficiently, so the player enjoys peak performance, a minimum injury risk and fast recuperative powers.



Here's what you can do:

- Make certain that your athletes are properly prepared for the sport. Preventive care dictates the wisdom of visiting a doctor of chiropractic for a spinal examination on a regular basis. If the diagnosis shows anything not within the scope of chiropractic treatment, the conscientious doctor of chiropractic will refer the athlete to one of the other health specialties.
- Make certain that a doctor of chiropractic is a member of your health team. Many of the high-performing professional and amateur teams have retained doctors of chiropractic as their team physicians.
- Minimize the use of drugs and medications and utilize natural health methods.

Library Automation

reported by VIRGINIA ARRAL

Dolores J. Tansey, Director of the Mattapoisett Free Public Library, has informed the Board of Selectmen on the necessary commitment that the Library must now make to continue as a serious participant in the New Bedford sub-region library automation project. "Approval has been obtained from Library Trustees", the director said.

As an active member of SEAL (Southeastern Automated Libraries) Mattapoisett Library is one of the 14 libraries that comprise the New Bedford sub-regional library system.

In 1984 these libraries saw a need to research the feasibility of automation, and in August 1985 the sub-region applied to the Board of Library Commissioners for an automation-planning grant; the total request was for $45,000. In June 1985 the planning grant was funded through Title I funds Library Services and Construction Act (LSCA).

The libraries comprising the New Bedford sub-region include: Acushnet, Assonet, Carver, Cuttyhunk, Dartmouth, Fairhaven, Fall River, Marion, Mattapoisett, New Bedford, Rochester, Somerset, Swansea, Wareham and Westport. Your library card will be honored by public libraries in all of these cities and towns.

In October 1986 data from the sub-regional libraries was collected and evaluated in order to achieve the program objectives which were: to determine user needs by conducting surveys and output measures; establish training programs for personnel of all project libraries; evaluate reults; develop a plan for an automated system; and to train and prepare staff.

In November of 1986 finalized copies of the by-laws of SEAL were sent to all participating libraries for general approval. A copy of the by-laws has been sent to Donald J. Fleming, Town Counsel, asking him to check for any conflict with Mattapoisett town by-laws.

$527,300 was approved in April 1987 contingent upon continuation of the State Competitive Grant Program funded through an appropriation of $5 million for fiscal 1987. The New Bedford sub-region is one of only two library systems in the State that has not yet automated its libraries. As of today 11 libraries in the sub-region (out of the 14) have made a firm financial commitment to the SEAL Automation Project. Those libraries not yet committed to the Project are Assonet, Rochester and Mattapoisett.

The following is information supplied the Selectmen by the Library Director:

WHAT DOES OUR LIBRARY HAVE TO DO TO BECOME PART OF THE SYSTEM?

Presently our library is already a participant in the SEAL planning process. The next step needed is the appropriation or allocation of local funds to be used to purchase certain locally needed equipment (terminals and communications devices); to upgrade electrical and telephone service; and to support the creation of the computer records that will be needed for both our patron files and our card catalog records.

In addition, this is an ongoing program for the library. Each year there will be expenses associated with our use of the system. These expenses will include our share of the cost of maintaining the hardware and software, as well as telecommunication costs and shared personnel expenses. These costs will appear annually in the library budget with an annual ongoing cost of $7,500.

The local funding commitment will include a one-time fee. The Board of Library Commissioners, the state agency responsible for the awarding on the LSCA grant funds, expects each participant to have allocated approximately $20,000 towards the first year's start-up expenses. Mattapoisett's responsibility is projected to be $18,000 for the first year of the program. Mrs. Tansey explained the information and article wasn't ready for this annual town meeting, but will be prepared for the 1988-1989 fiscal budget, with Selectmen's approval.

New Bedford sub-regional delivery service, a state-funded public library system service. The delivery time would be shortened from the week or more it presently takes to obtain a book from another library, explained the library director.

The second major change would provide a cost-effective way for our library to improve the quality of service by better serving the public; improve collection maintenance and development and long-range planning; provide efficient inventory control mechanism by coordinating collection development to avoid unnecessary duplication of materials; improve management reports and, in future years, provide access to book collections of libraries of other types, such as colleges, businesses, and courts.

WHY AUTOMATE? We live in an age where information - timely information - is a necessity to successful living, where people are used to the benefits of automation at work, at the bank, at their insurance agents, at travel agents and truly in all areas of our lives. Libraries have lagged far behind in capitalizing on automation and using its benefits to improve the quality of service to our users and to improve the cost effectiveness of our operation.

SEAL will provide our library with the opportunity to become a participant in 20th century information, a provision to the residents of our community. Residents of our region regardless of where they live, their age, their socio-economic status,

Host Families Needed

YOU CAN HOST AN INTERNATIONAL STUDENT

Volunteer host families are needed to house, feed and befriend high school students from Germany this summer.

These students are members of a fine German concert band that will be performing in the area.

More than 25 homes in Marion, Mattapoisett and the New Bedford area are needed to house English-speaking high school students from July 19th to August 2nd. These high school students want to stay with American families and participate in American home life.

Families with lots of love to share are invited to share in an exciting cross-cultural experience in their own homes. Host families are invited to attend some of the special activities planned for the visitors, and will find this a terrific opportunity to get to know a young visitor from another land, as well as to help their homestay guests understand American culture and values.

The two or three credit course is designed for the teacher, youth leader and others interested in learning and teaching about the coastal environment in southeastern New England. Classroom sessions on the theory and practice of marine education will be combined with field sessions employing a variety of techniques, skills and teaching methods for working with students. Use of audiovisual presentations, program evaluation, microcomputers and data analysis, and curriculum development will be discussed.

For those who wish to receive 3 credits, there will be special evening sessions in which participants will have the opportunity to design their own marine curriculum to be incorporated into their teaching situation. Arrangements can also be made for Lloyd Center Staff to assist with the implementation of the curriculum.

Graduate credit is granted through the University of Rhode Island. To register contact the Lloyd Center at 990-0505.

The show, which opened at Broadway's Imperial Theatre in 1979, has been widely publicized as being based on the real life characters and lifestyle of the real life composer and lyricist, Hamlisch and Sager. The plot involves Vernon Gersch and Sonia Walsk who are today's children; in and out of psychoanalysis, in and out of each other's arms - and beds. Vernon is a successful pop composer, Sonia an aspiring lyricist. When they begin to collaborate they also begin to fall in love, but the path is far from smooth. Vernon can express himself in music but not emotionally. Sonia cannot get rid of Leon, a past relationship whom she still feels sorry for.

Kevin Daly of New York City plays the role of Vernon. He has extensive credits in professional theatre having appeared in the Broadway and National Tours of "42nd Street", No, No Nanette" with Carol Lawrence and Mimi Hines, "Rodger and Hart", and "They're Playing Our Song", in the lead role opposite Andrea McArdle.

Risa Brainin plays Sonia and presently lives in Brooklyn. She received her theatrical training at Carnegie-Mellon University and has appeared in a number of Off-Broadway productions. Performance credits include "Sweeney Todd", "Candide", and "Side by Side by Sondheim".

What makes this song and dance version of the classic boy-meets-girl story all the more interesting is the added dimension of having the fictional composer and lyricist accompanied in creative interludes by artistic alter egos. Performing in these roles are Paul Sardinha of New Bedford, Susan Trout of Providence, Susan J. Matula of Somerset, Kevin McGlynn of Medford, Christine DeVito of Brighton, and Bernie Choiniere of Boston.
